Learn by doing: Time and location questions

A Look at the model conversation below. Use the words on the right to complete the conversation.

A: Where do you live, Ken?
B: Right now ...........
A: Oh yeah? How long have you lived there?
B: Oh, ........... I moved there ...........
A: Really? Where did you live before?
B: ............

I lived in Georgetown with my family just after university
I'm living in Hamilton for about 5 years

B Now make a similar conversation with a partner, using the questionnaire below. Add some more questions of your own.

Interview your partner

Where do you live?
How long have you lived there?
Where did you live before?
How long does it take you to come to class?

Where do you think is the best place to eat around here?
If you could take a holiday anywhere in this country, where would you go?
How long would you like to stay there?
What time of year do you think would be best to go?
What other country would you most like to visit?

How long have you been studying for the TOEIC test?
When do you think you will be able to get the score you want?

Further study

Think of a famous person and write two “Where”, two “When”, and two “How long” questions you could ask them. Then write the answers you think they would give.
In the next class read the answers you wrote to see if your partner can guess the questions you asked and the famous person you chose.
In this unit, you will further develop your skills in getting the topic/main ideas and other detailed information both implicitly and explicitly given in texts, guessing meanings of words from contexts and inferring attitudes of the speakers. You will also learn about emphatic stress as well as words and other visual cues (e.g. kinesic, body language and other nonverbal clues) to work out meanings.

<tr>

<tr>

UNIT 14 OFFERS, REQUEST, OPINIONS

Language building: Become familiar with language for offers, requests and opinions

Offers

1. Would you like some help with those?
   - c, e

2. Do you need (any) help with setting up the room?

3. Can/May I get you anything?

Requests

4. Could/Can you tell me how to use this machine?

5. Would you mind if I opened the window?

1. Would you care for a slice of pie? .................................................................
2. Can you tell Ms. Jackson that her parcel has arrived? .................................
3. What do you think of your new boss? ............................................................

2 Test tactic: Identify correct/incorrect offer, request and opinion answers

For the question below, choose the correct answer. Tell your partner why the other choices were wrong: because they have the same/similar sounding word or because the meaning is incorrect.

1. Is there anything I can do to help with the project?
   a) Yes, they finished the project.
   b) No, that's fine. It's already taken care of.
   c) We could have done it last week.

2. Do you have a calculator I could borrow?

   c) Sorry, I left mine at home.

3. How was your test?
   a) You have to pass the test to get a license.
   b) On Wednesday.
   c) Harder than I expected.

Follow up: Now listen to two more questions followed by three answer choices. After each answer choice, pause the audio and repeat what you heard. If it is correct, circle the letter. If not, mark the distractor type(s).

1. (A) [ ] same word/similar sound [ ] incorrect meaning
   (B) [ ] same word/similar sound [ ] incorrect meaning
   (C) [ ] same word/similar sound [ ] incorrect meaning

2. (A) [ ] same word/similar sound [ ] incorrect meaning
   (B) [ ] same word/similar sound [ ] incorrect meaning
   (C) [ ] same word/similar sound [ ] incorrect meaning

3 Tactic practice

Use the tactics you have practiced for the next five questions. Pause the audio after each one to allow you to repeat each question and answer choice to your partner.

In natural spoken English, sounds are sometimes changed, combined and dropped. Listen to these sentences spoken naturally and write in the missing words.

......... carry these books for me?
......... mind showing Kim the supply room?
Mini-test

Now practice what you have learnt at the actual test speed with questions 1–12.

You will have 5 seconds at the end of each item to make your choice. You must then be ready to listen to the next question.

</table>

Follow up: Make more offer, request and opinion conversations, using your own ideas and words from the unit.

Further study

Think of one offer, request and opinion you have used or heard recently and write them out in English. In the next lesson, say them to your partner, who should respond appropriately.
Learn by doing: Requests

A Complete the two conversations using the words in the box.

I’ll do it
Sure
Would you mind

Any time will be fine
Do you think I could

Culture note

If you don’t know the person well, start your request with:

Excuse me ... or
I’m sorry to bother you, but ...

Think of an actual request you made recently, or imagine one you might make, and write the conversation in English. Write three questions (you don’t need to make answer choices) to test your classmates in the next lesson.
