Abstrac

Abuse of power committed by the New Order regime covered all aspects of life, including legal aspects, economic and political. As a result in legal field, the abuse caused the victim of individuals, groups and citizens who suffered physically, mentally, and economically. People ("grassroots") and the country became a victim of abuse of power committed by the rulers of the New Order regime in the political casualties of individuals, groups, communities and social structures that suffered physically, mentally and economically. Victims of abuse of power of the New Order regime that includes as a victim, as victim (new victimology) is positive in the criminal law was not identified by authorities as a victims, as victim of conventional crime which is the target of criminal law in Indonesia. Victims of abuse of power, including victims of crimes, are unconventional. Viewed from the paradigm of victimization, the victims of abuse of power includes political.

Keyword: Victims, abuse of power.
Sumber Bacaan

Undang-Undang Nomor 13 Tahun 2006 Tentang Perlindungan Saksi Dan korban

***************